This major is designed to prepare students to teach in public schools. In order to graduate with this major, students are required to complete Utah State Office of Education licensing requirements. To view these requirements go to http://education.byu.edu/ess/licensing.html or contact Education Student Services, 350 MCKB, 801-422-3426.

Licensure: This program meets the educational requirements designed to lead to an occupationally required professional license or certificate in the state of Utah. Students pursuing occupations requiring a license or certificate in a state other than Utah should contact the appropriate BYU academic advisement center as well as the licensing agency in the state where they intend to work to seek information and guidance regarding licensure and certification requirements.

This major is designed to prepare students to teach in public schools. In order to graduate with this major, students are required to complete Utah State Office of Education licensing requirements. To view these requirements go to http://education.byu.edu/ess/licensing.html or contact Education Student Services, 350 MCKB, 801-422-3426. Students may declare a French Teaching pre-major by contacting the Liberal Education Student Services, 350 MCKB, 801-422-3426.

To view these requirements go to http://education.byu.edu/ess/licensing.html or contact Education Student Services, 350 MCKB, 801-422-3426.

Students may declare a French Teaching pre-major by contacting the Liberal Education Student Services, 350 MCKB, 801-422-3426. The first course will be FLANG 276: Exploration of Teaching Foreign Languages (offered on the first block during Fall and Winter semesters), at the end of which students apply for the French Teaching major through Educator Plus (application procedures are explained during FLANG 276).

For students accepted into the major after December 16, 2019, grades below C in any required coursework in a teaching major or teaching minor will not be accepted. Teacher candidates must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.7 or higher once admitted into the program and to qualify for student teaching. For additional details on admission and retention requirements for teaching majors and teaching minors, see Educator Preparation Program Requirements in the Undergraduate Catalog.

A teaching minor in another subject is strongly recommended. Teaching opportunities in public schools may be significantly reduced without a second teaching subject that a teaching minor provides.

Note: The Department of French and Italian offers the following resources to strengthen language skills: conversation courses (FREN 211R, 311R, 411R), Foreign Language Student Residence, Study Abroad, and internships in French-speaking countries. Please refer to the specific program or course description for detailed information about these resources.

GENERAL INFORMATION:
The Department of French and Italian strongly recommends that STDEV 317, a 1-credit-hour course, be taken at the end of the sophomore year or the beginning of the junior year. Because liberal arts degrees provide preparation in a variety of useful fields rather than a single career track, this course is recommended to help liberal arts students focus on specific educational and occupational goals and to identify the career options or educational opportunities available to them. The course will introduce them to the resources needed for accessing

<td>The French Teaching Program prepares students with the professional knowledge and experience required to become licensed middle and high school French teachers. The program provides a strong foundation in the French language and Francophone literature and culture. It also focuses on pedagogy to support students in the development of curriculum, lesson plans, and assessment. Graduates of this program are positioned to work as teachers, curriculum specialists, and language program coordinators. Many also pursue advanced degrees that qualify them to work as administrators, curriculum or technology specialists, and professional consultants. Students must apply for admission to the French Teaching program. Before applying, students must complete FLANG 276 (Exploration of Language Teaching), offered on the first block during Fall and Winter semesters. Application is done through the Educator database (http://educator.byu.edu). A teaching minor in another field is not required but strongly encouraged.
